

DALLAS
Culture-To-Go
3.13.10-3.21.10

CULTURE

$7 - Spring Fling

March 16 - 20

Check out some special hands-on activities with costumed, living history interpreters! Play old-fashioned games like croquet, hoops, marbles and games and help Mrs. de Léon make a piñata (broken daily at 2 p.m.). Or even lend a hand at the 1860s farmstead, make yarn and paper dolls with Mrs. Blum before playing hopscotch and help Mr. Clementine care for Nip and Tuck, the Village's Mammoth Jack donkeys. Activities free with museum admission.

Dallas Heritage Village
1515 South Harwood St.
More Info: www.dallasheritagevillage.org

MUSEUM

$5 - Women's Work

Through April 11

A celebration of women artists who boldly undertook the challenges of printmaking and the quality of their resulting success. These works span the twentieth century with impressions by Works Progress Administration artists Mabel Dwight, Clara Skinner, and Beatrice Cuming; to New York School artists Lee Krasner and Grace Hartigan; as well as African-American artists Elizabeth Catlett, Faith Ringgold, and Carrie Mae Weems.

The Women's Museum
3800 Parry Avenue
More Info: www.thewomensmuseum.org

MUSIC

$17 - Mozart & Handel

Thursday, March 18 at 8PM

You're in for an incredible evening as Nicholas McGegan leads the Dallas Symphony Orchestra and violinist Caroline Goulding in Mozart's Violin Concert No. 4. This inspired program begins and ends with two baroque masterpieces - Bach's joyous Suite No. 3 and Handel's Music for the Royal Fireworks.

Meyerson Symphony Center
2301 Flora Street
More Info: www.dallassymphony.com

FILM

FREE - 2010 Southern Methodist University Japanese Film Festival

March 19 & 20 at 6:30PM

A four-day event that showcases major films in the Japanese film industry. This year's selected films explore the darker side of contemporary Japanese cultures. All films are shown in Japanese with English subtitles.

McCord Auditorium
3225 University Boulevard
More Info: www.smu.edu

DANCE

$15 - Malcolm Jamal Warner - Poets N Jazz

Saturday, March 13 at 8PM

Back by popular demand, this spectacular night of live jazz and spoken word from some of America's best poets. If you want to relax and get into a jazz and poetic groove, then this is the right mix for you!

The Black Academy of Arts and Letters
Dallas Convention Center Theater Complex
650 South Griffin Street
More Info: www.tbaal.org